

San Pedro de Atacama (3 days / 2 nights)

Itinerary:

Day 01: Upon arrival at Calama airport, reception at the airport and transfer by private service to your hotel.

Day 02: San Pedro de Atacama. Early in the morning departure in semi-private service to visit the Valley of the Moon and enjoy breakfast with the unparalleled views of the Cordillera de la Sal. The Valley of the Moon is located in the middle of the Cordillera de la Sal and is a area of sculptural rock formations whose salinity rises to the surface, covering the landscape with a whitish and dry mantle that gives the place an appearance similar to the lunar surface. With the permanent assistance of the guide we will take a walk through the main dune and on our way back to San Pedro we will visit an "Ayllu" (local agricultural community) where we will walk through the narrow alleys surrounded by arable land and in one of its adobe houses an Atacama family. He will offer a tasting with local ingredients from his garden and will allow us to discover some typical flavors of the desert and highlands. In the afternoon excursion in semi-private service to see the Cejar Lagoon. This excursion takes place from Wednesday to Monday (there is no departure on Tuesdays). We visit the famous Laguna Cejar to enjoy a pleasant swim floating in the saline waters. The excursion also includes a short stop at the Ojos del Salar and a visit to the Tebenquiche lagoon where we observe impressive formations and views and where we can enjoy the beautiful landscapes in a pleasant state of relaxation.

In addition to being able to spot flamingos and taguas and at the end of the excursion you will enjoy an aperitif.

San Pedro de Atacama (4 days / 3 nights)

To participate in this program, visitors are required to arrive in Calama on the morning of the first day. Throughout their stay in the region, they will partake in three excursions led by a bilingual (Spanish/English) driver-guide, delving deeply into the main cultural and highland attractions.

This journey promises to be unforgettable, offering the opportunity to witness breathtaking sunsets over the Domeyko Mountain Range, marvel at the vastness of the highland lagoons, and experience the awe-inspiring geysers located about 4,000 meters above sea level. Furthermore, guests will have the chance to immerse themselves in the ambiance of an ancestral town where diverse languages from all over the world can be heard.

Itinerary:

Day 01: In the morning arrival at Calama airport and transfer in private services with guide to your hotel. In the afternoon regular service excursion to the Valley of the Moon. It will be a unique experience with a sunset in the most romantic tourist destination in South America. We will learn about the history, culture and challenges of the town of San Pedro de Atacama while we visit the impressive landscapes of the Valley of the Moon.

Day 02: Full day excursion in semi-private service. We will travel south, gaining altitude, to enter the lands of the puna and be surprised by its particular vegetation, wildlife, lagoons and salt flats where, without a doubt, Laguna Miscanti stands out: the largest in the entire Antofagasta region. On this adventure, we will visit the town of Socaire, where the indigenous community still preserves part of the traditional Atacama way of life. We will be welcomed at her home by a representative of a family of Weavers, who will show us how they have developed this traditional activity of the town, such as weaving llama, alpaca and sheep wool.

Day 03: Departure at 5:30 am in the morning in semi-private service to the Andean plateau where you will contemplate the intense volcanic activity that rises to the surface in powerful thermal manifestations and fumaroles that rise several meters high. The route will take us to see another powerful gift from the earth known as "White Geyser", where it is possible to enjoy a thermal bath. At the end of the day we will have seen the most important high altitude ecosystems with extremely rich biodiversity, such as the wetlands of Machuca and Putana and the town of Machuca.

Day 04: After breakfast private transfer back to Calama airport. End of services
