

Private tours in Santiago

Full-day trekking excursion to El Morado Glacier

The value of the tour includes private transfers from your hotel in Santiago, driver guide, tickets to the Park and box lunch

The El Morado National Park is a protected area in the heart of the Andes Mountains, about 93 km from Santiago in the Cajón del Maipo. It covers the Morales River basin and the surrounding hills, highlighting the beautiful El Morado hill that gives its name to the Park.

At 7am departure from your hotel to begin a walk at 10am with the company of your trekking guide along the mountain trails with beautiful panoramic views. At 4 pm we return to the beginning, where we will share a delicious table with different types of cheeses and serrano ham accompanied by Chilean wine. At 8 pm arrival at your hotel.

Price per person USD 299